FLOURISHING SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday schools of this place are well attended not only by the young but by many of the middle aged as well, Bishop and his counselors setting admirable example of regular at tendance and active participation. The superintendent, Elder Samuel Cushing, with his corps of teachers, are very earnest in their efforts in maintaining and advancing the spiritual interests of childhood and youth. Elder Clifford Bale, for some time past the choir letter at Sunday ser-vices has with his family gone to Payson to make his home.

Mrs. Amelia Stockdale is down from Salt Lake paying a visit to her par-ents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. A. Rees. The lady taught school here one year and at Spanish Fork five years.

Thanksgiving Day was observed with appropriate exercises in all the schools and last evening a program, under the auspices of the public schools of San-taquin and Spring Lake, was rendered at the opera house. The house was overcrowded many failed to secure admittance; but those inside we treated to an intellectual feast speech, song and music, added to which was a mammoth graphophone that at once astonished and delighted all with its mysterious power.

CASE OF "SMALLPOX."

Goold-Madsen Nuptials-Increase of Delinquent Taxes.

Special Correspondence. Richfield, Sevier Co., Nov. 30.— Thanksgiving day passed off quietly here. Services were held at the tabernacle in the morning, where a suitable program was rendered, consisting of music by the choir, an organ solo by Josephine Jones, a vocal solo by Prof George M. Jones, and addresses by Elders Hyrum Keeler and James Christlansen. In the evening the Odd Fel-lows gave their annual banquet and which was an unqualified suc-

ONE "SMALLPOX" CASE.

There is considerable sickness in our city just at present. There is one mild case of "smallpox," little Lote Kinney being the afflicted one. Brother Rasmus Jensen, age sixty-six, is suffering severely with diabetis, while the little two-year-old girl of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Farnsworth is sick with a kidney trouble of some nature.

GOOLD-MADSEN NUPTIALS.

On Wednesday the county clerk is-sued a marriage license to Hyrum Madsen and Emma S. Goold, of Monroe, and performed the ceremony that made them one. The young people are prominently known in the county and have host of friends who wish them long and happy life.

Opportunities for Building Up Prosperous Community.

Special Correspondence. Tropic, Garfield Co., Utah, Nov. 27.-Perhaps nowhere in Utah are there to be found placed so easily within reach materials for the building up of prosperous and happy homes than are to be found in this beautiful and fertile location. Phenomenal is a term not mis-applied in setting forth what this settlement has accomplished in the short space of seven years, and is ac-complishing, as, for instance, within the past two years in the neighborhood of thirty modern residences have been trected besides remodeling the meeting ouse, which is now the most commo four in the country. This has been done in the face of an unprecedented frouth (now happily broken) and lasting two years. This speaks volumes for the thrift and enterprise of this young community, composed mostly of energetic young people. of energetic young people

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT For Benefit of School Library

Special Correspondence. Spanish Fork, Utah County, Nov. 29. The public schools of Spanish Fork held Thanksgiving entertainment evening at the Central meeting house. The prime object being to obtain books for the public school library and also o create an interest in educationat matters. It was under the management of the principal, David Prior, and his aids. Remarks were made by several of the patrons of the school, when a program was rendered. The grammar departments delivered their parts in a pleasng and instructive manner. The child-ren who took part in the primary

Young Stage Driver Goes Over a Prece

Last Friday night David Perea was put on the Springerville mail cart as a new driver, says the St. Johns, Arizona,

Herald. He made the trip to Springerville all O. K., left there at the usual time 5 p. m. and started for St. Johns, when he was about eight miles from Springerville the horse left the road, as it was a dark rainy night it was impossible for any person to see any land marks whatever, so it seems that he let the horse take its own course, when the Little Colorado was reached it stopped, to learn what was the cause of the horse stopping.

Little did he think he was within two steps of death's door, for in taking three steps he went over the edge of a 60 foot precipice and down into the can-you of the Little Colorado. His neck and left leg, and left arm were broken, and the left temple probably fractured. The body was found in a sitting posture between two rocks, but all indica-tions shows that death had been instantaneous. A search party was or-ganized and sent out after the boy was missed, and Basilio Cooper and the dead boy's brother, Pablo, were the first to find his remains, which were brought to St. Johns, and Justice Salazar held an inquest over his body and found that he had died by accident.

The deceased leaves five brothers, four sisters and an aged mother to mourn his loss. He was a good boy, being well
